26 KILLED IN RAIL CRASH IN BENGAL

LONDON, April 17 (T.Ocean)—Twenty-six persons are dead and 50 injured as the result of a railway accident, which occurred in Bengal this morning. It is reported from Calcutta. The accident happened at the station of Majda, when a passenger train ran into a goods train waiting in the station.

Japanese Use Poison Gas Liberally

YUANKU, SHANSI, April 17 (Central)—Liberal use of poison, particularly asphyxiating and sneezing gas bombs, was again resorted to by Japanese in recent encounters with Chinese forces on the Chung-tiao-shan sector in south Shansi, military reports reaching here claim.

Despite the use of gas by the enemy, Chinese forces in the past week have recaptured considerable lost ground among the hills terrain. On April 13 a terrific Chinese artillery barrage on the Japanese at Hsiang-shien, south of Wensi, inflicted heavy losses. The puppet magazine there is reported to have been injured.

To the east of the Fen River, the Japanese forces at Yicheng, twenty miles southeast of Linfen, have been surrounded by the Chinese troops. More than 1,000 Japanese at Kuwo, who rushed north-eastward to Yicheng in an attempt to drive a wedge into the Chinese ring, were waylaid by the defenders at Nanfanchen and beaten back.

At Wensi, the Japanese forces have been increased to 2,000 men and three fighting has broken out in the vicinity.

CHINESE NEAR TANGYIN

LOYANG, Apr. 17 (Central)—Belated military reports from the north Honan front claim the recapture of Hopital, a small village west of Tangyin on the Peiping-Hankow railway near the Hopel border on the night of Apr. 11 by Chinese forces after a vigorous assault.

The reports state that Chinese forces were pressing on Tangyin city with the co-operation of local militia corps.

The Australian Government has decided to grant a life annuity of £500 to Mrs. Lyons.

A similar annuity will be given to the children until the youngest, who at present is six years old, reaches the age of 21.

U.S. Fleet Order

JAPAN SURPRISED

No Comment From Navy Ministry

TOKYO, April 17 (REUTER)—THE ORDERS GIVEN BY MR. CLAUDE SWANSON, SECRETARY FOR THE NAVY, has caused considerable surprise in Japanese navy circles, since, in their opinion, Japanese-American relations had recently taken a turn for the better.

It is also considered that the full strength of the American fleet will be required in the Atlantic, in view of the tense European situation. The Japanese Ministry of the Navy for the moment declines to make any comment.

200 JAPANESE INCINERATED

ICHENG, HUPEH, Apr. 17 (Central)—About 200 Japanese soldiers at Hwangang were burned to a horrible death on Apr. 14 when a strong unit of Chinese guerrillas surrounded and set fire to their stronghold. The helpless Japanese were trapped inside and literally incinerated to ashes.

Mr. Tedomal A. Jasmani, 35, residing at No. 2, Caine Road, is reported missing. He left his house at 5.30 p.m. on Sunday, and has since failed to return home.

Hitler Calls Reichstag For April 28 To Reply To Roosevelt's Appeal

BERLIN, April 17 (REUTER)—HERR HITLER HAS CALLED THE REICHSTAG FOR APRIL 28 TO HEAR THE REPLY TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S APPEAL.

An official announcement declares, "The American President has addressed a telegram to Herr Hitler asking his attitude in certain matters, which are so important, that the Fuehrer has decided to give his reply in the name of the German people in the Reichstag."

The step taken by the Fuehrer is not unexpected.

Herr Von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister, returned to Berlin from Munich to-day while Field Marshal Goering who has been in Rome for conversations with the Italian Government is expected to leave Rome to-night.

GERMAN PRESS HOSTILE LONDON, April 17 (Reuter)—Besides Britain, France and Russia, all Latin American states have given their approval to President Roosevelt's appeal. The German press remains hostile and scornful while the "Popolo Di Roma" declares that Mr. Roosevelt's appeal was made in order to strengthen his chances for retaining the Presidency. The paper adds, "Roosevelt, in order to fix the seat of his pants in the Presidential chair will place, in the wrong, the leaders of two great nations."

"VIGOROUS NO" ROME, April 17 (Reuter)—"The Fascist reply will only be a vigorous and final no," declares "Popolo Di Roma" commenting on President Roosevelt's appeal. Government inspired statements and articles in the noon newspapers are all very hostile reflecting a sharp change in political circles which were at first inclined to be favourable to the President's appeal.

"Roosevelt's message must be considered as an act of war," says the "Messaggero" in an editorial. The paper strongly objects to Roosevelt's assumption that Italy and Germany are likely aggressors and says that such an assumption is insolent and takes from the document any value it might have had.

The paper declares that the reply from Rome will be "what it ought to be, in full agreement with Berlin."

HITLER LEAVES FOR AUSTRIA

Sudden Change Of Plans

MUNICH, April 17 (Reuter)—Herr Hitler, accompanied by Herr Dietrich, left for Austria late last night by special train for a tour of inspection of the principal towns.

Political circles declare that the visit was planned some time ago, although it was generally thought that the Fuehrer was going to Berlin immediately.

of President Roosevelt who offers a peace conference before the war instead of after it in a statement transmitted to Washington. He declares that no country can lightly reject that opportunity for saving civilization by saving itself.

CABLE WARFARE TOKYO, April 17 (Reuter)—The Japanese press states that Mr. Roosevelt's appeal is inspired by Britain and should be ignored by Britain and Rome as it does not represent the opinion of the American people.

Cable warfare is the description given to President Roosevelt's message by "Kokumin" which says the world situation is unlikely to be affected substantially thereby.

The "Nichi Nichi Shinbun" expresses the fervent hope that the Pacific will remain peaceful forever, with Japan and the United States prospering mutually, each playing a role in the maintenance of world peace.

Appeal Strikes At Very Core Of Dangerous Complex In Which Europe Is Involved

INITIATIVE IS WRESTED FROM THE AGGRESSORS

LONDON, April 17 (BWS AND REUTER)—PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO HERR HITLER AND SIGNOE MUSSOLINI PROPOSING COMPLETE RECIPROCAL PLEDGES AGAINST AGGRESSION FOR AT LEAST TEN YEARS, to be followed by conferences to discuss disarmament and economic readjustment, will inevitably influence proceedings in both Houses of Parliament which reassemble to-morrow after an interrupted Easter recess.

A GENERAL STATEMENT ON FOREIGN POLICY IS TO BE INVITED IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS ON WEDNESDAY and although no time has been set aside for similar discussion in the House of Commons, members will be kept in close touch with developments in the international sphere. A series of questions have already been tabled which will give the Prime Minister opportunity of reviewing the events since the Commons' debate on Thursday.

Meanwhile Mr. Roosevelt's initiative continues to receive wholehearted approval from all sections of opinion here and the welcome extended to it by the public, when it was announced on Saturday, is cordially endorsed in the press.

"The Times," which describes Mr. Roosevelt as a man of action and of infinite courage says his messages are something more than a warning which may be disregarded. They contain a definite request which invites a definite answer.

"It was to be expected that the German press would seize at once upon the obvious parallel between Mr. Roosevelt's bold proposals and the great, but abortive, effort of his predecessor to establish a new world order a quarter of a century ago. But President Wilson's ultimate failure, as every one recognizes in retrospect, was due to circumstances which were profoundly different from those of to-day.

NO BARRIER "Political discussions, which Mr. Roosevelt envisages, and his ambition to provide international trade and raw material of it for every nation of the earth on equal terms, are sufficient assurance that he is no blind stickler for the Versailles settlement and would set no barrier anywhere against legitimate economic expansion.

"With these prudent reservations against the political entanglement he may well feel confident that he has the people of the United States behind him in his brave adventure. He, indeed, if ever there was one, is a people's crusader. The drive for enduring peace is a movement that is backed by the peoples of all the world. Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Halifax have their people behind them, just as surely as Mr. Roosevelt has his.

"The momentous commitments undertaken in Europe during the last few weeks have been accepted with the full sense of all that they involve but without a murmur of dissent. It is not unreasonable to think that they have already provided a momentary relaxation of tension which gave the opportunity for the President's statesmanlike initiative.

"The 'Daily Telegraph' says that whatever may be the response of the totalitarian States, Mr. Roosevelt's appeal cannot fail to exert a palpable influence on the course of events. It strikes to the very core of the dangerous complex in which Europe is involved and must make a true interpretation of it plain beyond a peradventure. It applies an acid test.

SUPREME QUESTION The supreme question for the German and Italian people is whether they have the power to impress their rulers of what they themselves desire as passionately as fellowmen of other countries, continues "The Times."

Step by step, the paper continues, the difficult process of wise British policy which has never excluded the chances of peaceful discussions but is determined to be strong enough to secure it, has gone steadily forward recently. It is certain that the qualities in Britain, to which American opinion will always respond, are strength and courage and that the respect due to these qualities is reciprocal. Everyone here will endorse the welcome which the British Government extended so promptly to President Roosevelt's statesmanlike initiative.

The "Daily Mail" says that nothing would defeat the President's purpose more than to act as if the replies were bound to be favourable. The appeal may give the dictators a pause but it is unlikely to make them abandon power politics. Nothing but the armed might of the democracies will do that.

ROYAL VISIT TO U.S.A.

PROJECT MAY BE CANCELLED

LONDON, Apr. 17 (Transocean)—King George conferred with the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, and the American Ambassador, Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy, yesterday at Windsor Castle.

It is assumed that the discussion dealt principally with the question of whether, in view of the political situation, the Royal visit to America should be cancelled or postponed.

According to the "Daily Express," several members of the Government are of the opinion that the journey should not take place, because, in the event of war, the King could not return to England. The King himself is said to desire that the plans be carried out.

Political Murder In Shanghai

SHANGHAI, April 17 (Reuter)—Mr. Chao Kao-tung, aged 43, circulation manager of the American-owned Chinese evening paper, "Ta Mei Wen Pao" was shot dead in Settlement Road to-night by three Chinese who escaped in an automobile. The shooting is believed to be political.

CHINESE SMASH THROUGH JAPANESE LINES IN NORTH SHANSI

SIAN, April 17 (Central)—Chinese forces have launched a vigorous counter-attack on Tsinglo, in north Shansi. After smashing through the Japanese lines near the strategic town, they are reported to have reached the north gate, where they are now engaged in "clearing-up" operations.

The Japanese have retreated to the western part of the town to give stubborn resistance.

In west Shansi, the Chinese have been attacking the Japanese at Tawu and Kinglo, respectively north and south of Lishih, inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy.

Under a terrific artillery barrage, the Japanese at Kinglo launched a counter-offensive on the Chinese, but have been beaten back following a fierce battle.

A Japanese unit from Lishih, who attempted to repair the telegraph wires torn down near the town, was attacked by Chinese troops lying in ambush a few days ago. Many of the Japanese were killed. On the same day, they launched an attack on the villages in the vicinity but were repulsed by the Chinese defenders.

Many Japanese troops have been rushed to Sohsien from Tatum in north Shansi in the past few days. It is reported that they will be shifted to Ningwu as reinforcements for a drive on Pienkwan.

HEAVY FIGHTING

YUNGYUN, KWANGTUNG, April 17 (Central)—With the strategic city of Tsengshing grasped back from the Japanese hands, Chinese forces are consolidating their communication line between Tsengshing and Tsungta, on which the Japanese attempted many thrusts during the week-end.

On the afternoon of April 15, a large force of several thousand Japanese from Shengkong and Tsingchong launched a furious assault on an undisclosed point to the southeast of Tsungta, but were stubbornly met by Chinese resistance. Fighting raged throughout Saturday night and Sunday morning with both sides yielding little ground.

JAPANESE LOSE 22,199 MEN IN HALF A MONTH

CHUNGKING, April 17 (Central)—The total Japanese loss in manpower on all fronts during the first half of April was estimated by the military headquarters here at 22,199 officers and men killed and 556 captured.

Apart from the serious loss in manpower, the material losses of the Japanese expeditionary force in China during the same period include 399 war horses, 557 rifles and machine guns, 32 machine and sub-machine guns, four field guns, 75 tanks and armoured cars, and upwards of 10,000 rounds of cartridge.

The Japanese losses, it is revealed, were suffered during 323 engagements which they had with the defence forces during the period.

The Japanese suffered their heaviest loss in manpower on the Kiangsi front. In a total of fifty engagements, they lost 8,122 officers and men, 30 horses, 25 rifles and 22 tanks and armoured cars.

HONGKONG BEAT MACAO IN SOCCER INTERPORT

Hossack Nets Only Two Goals In Keen, Sporting Match

From Our Own Correspondent

MACAO, April 16.—The Interport match between Hongkong and Macao, which was played before a packed grandstand at the Canidrome Stadium this afternoon, ended in a two-nil win for Hongkong. Hossack scored both goals for the visitors.

Except for one or two weak points, especially in the forward line, Macao's team might be said to have justified the selection of the local committee, and was as follows:—Carvalho; Lobato, Chiang Shan-ching; Alrosa, Colaco (Capt.), Sousa; Lopes, Joaillho, Guerreiro, Badarraco, Rego.

Carvalho took his position between the posts with an injured hand and, while he appeared an easy victim for Hongkong's hard-shooting forwards, he gave a reasonable account of himself. A highlight of his play was his sensational and most unorthodox clearance of a pass from the right wing by heading the ball out of the penalty area and thereby relieving his goal from what appeared to be a dangerous moment.

The local team were fortunate in possessing Lobato and Chiang in the back positions. While both players were at times a little erratic with their kicking, their display was on the whole sound. Alrosa starred in the half-line and rendered very valuable support to his forward and rear team-mates. Colaco and Sousa showed up weaker than their usual form, the latter being a trifle slow against the opposing forward line.

SPEEDY WINGERS

Macao's wing players succeeded in keeping their pace against the opposing defence and contributed a great deal to the attack by centering the ball well and making sporadic solo run-ins.

Joaillho and Guerreiro did well in their positions, both players giving of their best in the forward line but, unfortunately, lacked power in their shooting. Badarraco played weakly and appeared very badly off-form.

Hongkong's line-up underwent several changes so that when the game started the positions were occupied as follows:—Cheung Wing-choy; Hussain; Leonard; Honeywell, Bright (Capt.), Courtney; Armstrong, Thorburn, Hossack, Ferrier, Lau Tau-man.

LEONARD OUTSTANDING

Outstanding for the winners was Leonard, who played solidly at defence, combining good judgment with speed. Also in line for honours were Thorburn and Hossack, who played an understanding game between themselves to the worry of the Macao defenders.

Thorburn proved very dangerous with his kick-drives, but fortunately for the losers he had few opportunities of getting into shooting position.

Hongkong's custodian, Cheung Wing-choy, was rarely called to go into action and had little difficulty in clearing up his area on these occasions. Hussain showed good partnership with Leonard, while the halves also played well. On the whole, Hongkong fielded a dangerous forward line which was unstintingly supported by the rear lines.

THE PLAY

About two minutes before the end of the first half, which was filled with mid-field play, Hossack opened the scoring with a long drive into the corner of the net from outside the penalty area.

Soon after resumption, Carvalho pulled off a spectacular save. Unable to use his injured hand during a phase of Hongkong's attack, the Macao custodian intercepted a dangerous centre by Armstrong and headed the ball into safety. A few minutes later Hossack again scored by sending the ball into a corner of the Macao net.

Macao attempted to decrease the lead and on several occasions came within reach of scoring, but were either pulled up for offside or were short of their mark. The final whistle intervened before the losers could score.

LT. J. Montalvao e Silva refereed the game.

Among the spectators were Capt. Macedo Pinto, representing the Officer Adminstrating the Government, who was introduced to the teams before the game. Dr. L. Meneses Alves, Colonial Secretary, and Mr. P. J. Lobo, President of the Macao Football Committee.

CONVIVIAL DINNER

A spirit of sporting friendship permeated the atmosphere in the Hotel Riviera to-night when victors and losers sat down together at the Interport dinner which was attended by Mr. W. E. Hollands, manager of the Hongkong team, and Mr. P. J. Lobo, President of the Macao Football Committee, and Lt. J. Montalvao e Silva, Vice-President. Following speeches by Mr. Hollands and Mr. Lobo, an exchange of pennants was made, after which toasts were drunk to the King of England and the President of the Portuguese Republic.

S'HA1 ATHLETE FOUND DEAD

Played Interport Soccer

Mr. Carl Gottfried Neuburg, one of Shanghai's outstanding athletes, was found dead in his room last Wednesday evening, when a servant entered the room to prepare the bed. Near the deceased was found an empty bottle of Lyso.

Mr. Neuburg, who was 22 years of age, was a German and a Shanghai boy. For many years he had been prominent in various sports and was best known as a full back in soccer, playing left and right positions with equal ease. He played for Shanghai in many interport events.

No letter or any other document was found on him or in his room.

R.M. OMAR FOR MANILA

Mr. R. M. Omar, local Interport soccer referee, has now received an official invitation from the Philippines Amateur Federation to visit Manila and officiate at the Interport and other games.

It will be recalled that Mr. Omar had been approached on the matter some time ago, and had withheld acceptance pending official confirmation of the invitation.

He will now leave on board the s.s. Empress of Russia on Thursday, and prior to the arrival of the Hongkong side in Manila, will probably referee one or two local games there.

TENNIS AGAIN WASHED OUT

Tsui - Ho Match Put Over To Friday

Causing still further delay and partly negating the good progress that had thus far been made, rain again washed out play in the Colony tennis championships yesterday.

The quarter-final match in the Open Singles between Tsui Yun-pui and Ho Ka-lau will now be played on Friday on the Stand Court.

At the time of writing it is doubtful whether there will be any play to-day and at this rate it is not impossible that the tournament will stretch into May.

H.K. CYCLING CLUB

Keates Wins 50 Miles Trial

Returning a time only 44 seconds slower than his two-years-old Colony record over the Kowloon Circuit course, H.A.G. Keates showed brilliant form to win the Hongkong Cycling Club's Blue Ribbon event, a 50 miles invitation handicap trial, by 9 mins. 32 secs. from M. L. O'Doherty.

Only three of the field invited to compete in the event decided to brave inclement weather which, in fact, was far from unfavourable as the heavy rain—which ceased altogether halfway—had the effect of reducing the effects of the adverse wind in the early stages. M.L. O'Doherty, No. 8 on the starting list, was the first rider despatched by Mr. R. H. McDowell, timekeeper, and this rider set a fast pace from the outset. Joginder Singh (No. 11) started more sedately and was actually caught by Keates (No. 13), who started 2 mins. after him, in the first mile of the ascent on Tai Po road.

Maintaining 20 m.p.h. until after passing the 35 miles point in 1.44.55, Keates slackened his pace over the final 15 miles which he covered in 54.4. (16.6 m.p.h.), this including the worst of the wind and hills. His effort gave him a final time of 2.38.59, only 44 secs. slower than the hardest of the Colony record figures.

Checking, marshalling and refreshment arrangements were capably carried out by Messrs. P. Stanley, Mok Hing-woon and Kam Yiu-wah.

THE RESULT

The full result was as follows:—

- | | h. m. s. |
|-----------------------------|-----------|
| 1. H. A. G. Keates (No. 13) | 2. 38. 59 |
| 2. M. L. O'Doherty (No. 8) | 3. 17. 21 |
| 3. Joginder Singh (No. 11) | 3. 19. 45 |

On Sunday next the Club has arranged to join forces with the Chinese Y.M.C.A. and will meet at the latter's Kowloon Headquarters at 9 a.m., the venue being Tai Po. The usual runs will be carried out on Wednesday and Saturday next, the rendezvous in each case being the Methodist Church, Hennessy Road, Wanchai, at 8 p.m. and 2.30 p.m. respectively.

HEAVY PROGRAMME AT "BISLEY" MEETING

Rain Fails To Dampen Spirits At Yesterday's Shoot

PRIZE DAY TO BE HELD MAY 14.

DESPITE THE STEADY DOWNPOUR OF RAIN and the resulting unpleasant conditions, the fourth day of the "Bisley" meeting of the Hongkong Rifle Association was proceeded with yesterday when more than 100 prizes were won in what was the heaviest day's programme of the meeting.

Hongkong Police "A" Team defeated the Hongkong Police Reserve in the Team Revolver Match, while the 5/6 Rajputana Rifles won the Platoon Match, defeating "C" Coy., 2nd Bn., The Royal Scots, to win the only other team match of the day.

NEW SWIMMING RECORD

DETROIT, April 17 (Reuter).—Jane Dillard, of the United States, broke the world's women's swimming record for the 100 yards breast-stroke, her time being 76 6/10 sec., beating Mrs. Rawls Thompson's record of 78 5/10 sec.

CHINESE GIRL TENNIS WONDER

Gem Hoahing Plays In F.M.S.

Miss Gem Hoahing, who created a sensation in England a few years ago by winning the Girls' title in that country, was seen in action at the Selangor Chinese Recreation Club Courts, Kuala Lumpur, F.M.S., when she played exhibition games in aid of China Relief Fund.

After playing a masterly game, her racket was auctioned for $100, the amount augmenting the day's money.

In her singles match against Mrs. E. K. Allin, former Malayan Champion, Gem Hoahing was irresistible. She scored winners repeatedly with sizzling backhand cross-court drives. Mrs. Allin tried to reduce the margin in the first set by coming up to the net, but her opponent seized the opportunity of passing her with well-placed drives. The set went to Gem at 6-2.

The second set went badly for Mrs. Allin. Gem Hoahing kept Mrs. Allin pinned down to the base-line with perfect length drives. She won the set at 6-0.

DOUBLES MATCH

Grand net-play by Sinclair in the doubles match enabled him and Mrs. Sinclair to bring the game to six all in the second set. This match hardly produced the best tennis from any of the players. The slippery court was partly responsible. Gem Hoahing often got the better of Sinclair at net with pretty drives down the lines, but on the other hand, Sinclair often killed her hottest drives by his superb play at net.

RESULTS

Gem Hoahing beat Mrs. E. K. Allin 6-2, 6-0.

Gem Hoahing and Ong Ee Kong beat Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair 6-1, 8-4.

LOUIS EXPECTED TO KNOCK-OUT JACK ROPER

Fight experts expect Louis to win on a knock-out in the first two or three rounds.

Roper is 36 years old and is said to have a lethal left hook.

TRIUMPHANT TEAM RETURN

Interport Ladies Had Fine Time

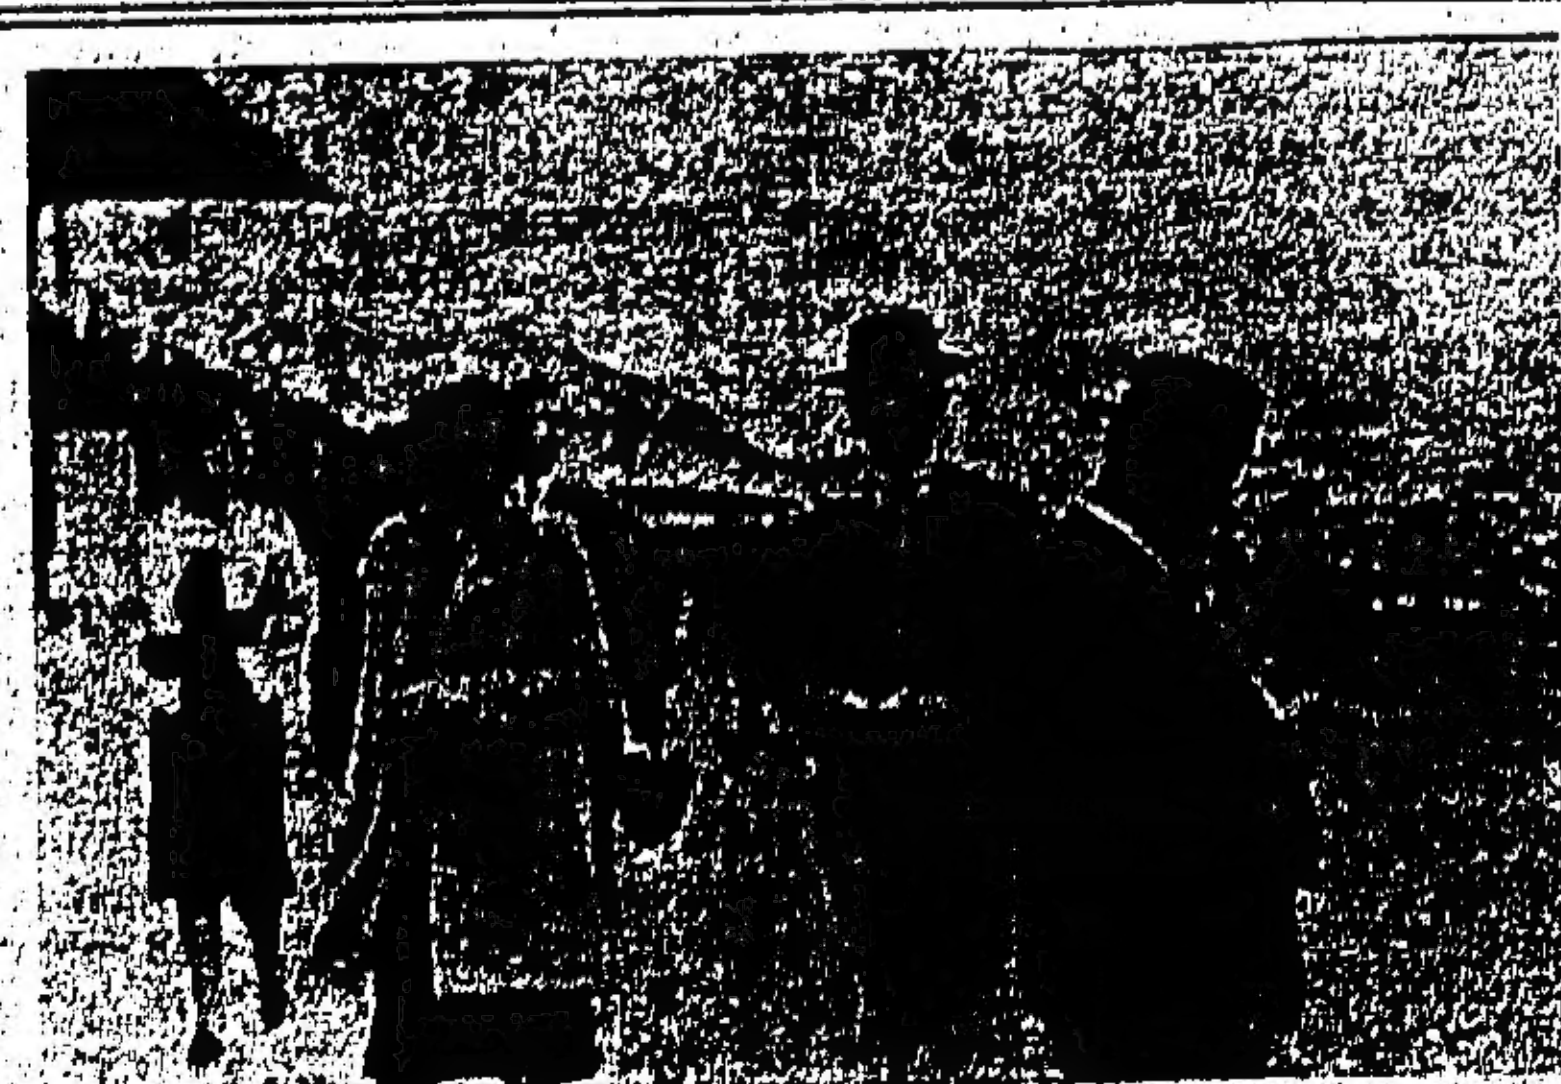

Leaving behind a hundred per cent record in Shanghai, and bringing back with them the White Shield and memories of a most enjoyable tour, the majority of the Hongkong Ladies' Interport Hockey team returned to the Colony yesterday on board the s.s. Wingsans.

The only match the team lost on their tour was one which they played against a men's side at Swatow, on Sunday. Without the services of Miss Gray, Mrs. Daisiel and Mrs. Read, the eleven were beaten by four goals to two, but gave a good account of themselves before being beaten.

The team were full of praise for the hospitality which they had been shown and all agreed that they had had a grand time.

SOLUTION TO-MORROW

"THE MAN WHO MADE THE PRINCE OF WALES LAUGH"

Mr. Herbert Mundin, the British film comedian, who was killed in a car crash in the United States on Mar. 5, began his stage career in Charlot's Revue in London.

He earned the title of "the man who made the Prince of Wales laugh" because he was one of the chief comedians in Charlot's Revue, which the Prince of Wales went to see nearly every time there was a change in the programme.

He gave eight command performances before King George V. and Queen Mary.

He was born in St. Helena in 1893, but while still a baby was taken to St. Albans by his father, a police-court missionary. He went to the St. Albans Grammar School, but at the outbreak of the war he was appearing as boy comedian at a Southport theatre.

SERVED IN NAVY
During the war he was a wireless telegraphist in the Navy. After the war he took the stage name of Bobbie Verrier and was equally successful making fun under it. Afterwards he resumed his own name.

When the Armistice was declared he got a job as second comedian with a London company, playing on one of the South Coast piers. He had to earn his living by doing his "turn" on the stage, and then passing round his hat among the audience.

Andre Charlot was looking for a new comedian at the time for his revue. One night he happened to go to watch the little pier attraction in the hope of finding someone suitable.

That night, as luck would have it, the chief comedian had had an argument with the manager and "walked out." Herbert Mundin substituted for him and Charlot immediately gave him a contract. He remained with Charlot's revue for seven years.

In 1931 he decided to go to America, and at Hollywood was given his first part, in "Almost Married." In the new medium he made a great name for himself as "Bridges" in "Cavalcade."

HIS FACE DID IT
Facial mobility was the secret of his success on the screen. Mundin said: "My face has always had a habit of 'running away' with me. I have never known what it was doing, and often my innermost thoughts have been revealed to my companions by some expression I did not know I was assuming."

"I just think intently of the particular part I am playing and my face does the rest of its own accord."

He was married and had one daughter. Recently, Mundin has not been working, and has been reduced to living in a parking place for motor trailers. However, he was induced to take part in an old-time vaudeville show organised by Alan Mowbray for British United Services Club charities. Mundin gave a striking impersonation of George Robey, which resulted in an offer of film work only an hour before he died.

MAKING LIFE ABOARD SHIP PLEASANT

Latest Innovation On President Boats

When the s.s. President Coolidge sails from San Francisco on May 5, for transpacific ports, its ship's company will include Miss Catherine Jewell, a young nurse, whose job is something new in ocean-going service.

Miss Jewell, a graduate nurse, wears a trim navy blue uniform with overseas cap, to serve as ship's hostess. But when she assists Dr. William Wildman, ship's surgeon, her uniform will be the nurse's traditional white. Her title is "surgeon's assistant."

As hostess, Miss Jewell's duties will introduce passengers to each other, or maybe mend a little traveller's doll, anything to make life aboard ship pleasant.

Dr. Rodney A. Yoell, chief surgeon for the American President Lines, said the President Coolidge is the first ship to employ a "surgeon's assistant" and that similar assignments will be made to all other vessels of the company's president-ship fleet.

Qualifications for the job are: A diploma from a recognized school of nursing, a registered nurse's certificate from the California State Board of Health, good character and U. S. citizenship.

CHARITY BALL ON FRIDAY

The grand Fancy Dress Charity Ball being organized by the Hongkong Branch of the National Women's Relief Association, in aid of war-wounded and refugees will be held on Friday night at the Grill Room of the Hongkong Hotel.

Tickets at $5.00 each are obtainable at the Hongkong Hotel and patrons are requested to reserve their tables early. Prizes will be awarded for the best Chinese historic costumes, the most original as well as the most comical costumes.

The Misses Stella and Helen Ho will execute a pas de deux, their most popular number. Miss Doreen Ma will render several jazz and blues songs. Little Miss Anita Lee, last seen in "Debutante Goes to Town" will delight patrons

KOWLOON PORTUGUESE DOUBLE WEDDING

PICTURE TAKEN AFTER THE DOUBLE WEDDING at the Rosary Church, Kowloon, on Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Willfred Lawrence, the Colony swimmer, was married to Miss Olga Ribeiro, and Miss Isilda Rosario became the bride of Mr. Luis A. Vieira Ribeiro. The Rev. Father Rossi officiated and a reception was held later at the Club de Recreio.

"QUINS" TO VISIT ROYALTY IN TORONTO

A recent report states that Olivia Dionne has accepted the Ontario Government's invitation to take the quintuplets to Toronto on May 22 to meet King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

Mr. Dionne is quoted as saying in a letter to Harry Nixon, Ontario provincial secretary: "Mrs. Dionne and myself are pleased to accept your kind invitation."

The Government has offered to send two special railway cars to take the Dionnes to Toronto.

When the invitation was issued in March, Dionne looked on it with disfavour and asked why the Royal visitors could not call on the quintuplets at Cullander.

If the children go to Toronto it will be their first trip away from home since their birth, May 28, 1934.

again with her ballet number. Mr. Hugh Chen will capture new fans with his intricate and tricky tap-dance. Then he will croon a few tantalizing tunes. The Chorus comprises the Misses Bella Ma, Florence Lam, Elsie Wong, Elsie Law, Salina Luk, Gloria Yee, Lily Chan, Mary Chan, Pat Ho, Priscilla Ho, Beatrice Law, and Doris Chow.

These cabaret turns should prove a great attraction. Beside helping a very deserving cause, an entertaining evening is assured.

EXTRAORDINARY PROCEDURE OF URBAN COUNCIL

Preferential Tenders For New Market Stalls

NO INCONSIDERABLE SURPRISE WAS OCCASIONED yesterday afternoon by the extraordinary procedure of the Urban Council in calling for preferential tenders for stalls in the new Central Market, in spite of the fact that the earliest date for receipt of tenders, as advertised, is to-day.

Proceedings at the market were conducted in privacy, and a press representative was told that he could not be admitted.

Investigations reveal that a communication was addressed by the Urban Council to certain people advising them of yesterday's session and inviting tenders, with the mention that other persons would not be allowed to tender until this afternoon.

Newspapers and news agencies which have sought during the past few weeks to secure information concerning methods of tendering have, it must be stated, not met with frank and full response from the Urban Council, and it is understood that interested trade circles are also feeling some resentment at the way matters are being handled.

According to a notice by the Urban Council, tenders will be received at the market on the following dates, proceedings to commence each day at 2.30 p.m. —

Poultry stalls—today.
Fish stalls—Thursday, April 20.
Beef and Mutton stalls—Saturday, April 22.
Pork stalls—Wednesday, April 26.
Fruit stalls—Friday, April 28.
Vegetable stalls—Tuesday, May 2.

FOOT ITCH ATHLETE'S FOOT

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. 5-22, at least 50% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form and the skin cracks and peels. After a while the itching becomes intense and you may be so itchy that you would like to scratch off all the skin.

Beware of It Spreading
Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.
Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crook of the legs.

Here's How to Treat It
The germ that causes the disease is known as "Tinea Trichophyton". It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and it is very hard to kill. A test tube shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ, so you can see why the ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.
H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It gets on the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

Itching Stops Immediately
As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.
H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief; especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

Obtainable at all
Drug Stores.

Bank Petition Granted

A petition for the reduction of capital from $5,000,000 to $1,923,080 and for the sanctioning of a scheme in connection with payment of debts to creditors, was brought before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in the Supreme Court yesterday by the National Commercial and Savings Bank, Ltd.

Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., instructed by the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, appeared for the petitioners.

The petition was granted. Mr. Potter said that in 1933 the Bank was badly affected by the closure of two other banks and, as a result, suffered serious loss.

In the following year, the Court approved of a scheme by which the debts due to unsecured creditors were to be paid by instalment every six months, but since then a new scheme had been arrived at by those concerned extending the time for repayment to every twelve months.

The object of the extension was to enable the Bank to continue on business and eventually to clear off its debts.

Referring to the reduction of capital, Mr. Potter said this was brought about by the reduction of 152,048 fully paid up "B" preference shares of $10 each to $5 each and 257,410 fully paid up ordinary shares of $10 each to $5 each.

OFFICIAL CANADIAN HANDBOOK

INVALUABLE DATA IN 1939 EDITION

Comprehensive and yet succinct information that should be of invaluable aid in any effort to survey the current situation of the country is contained in "Canada, 1939," the official handbook of present conditions and recent progress published annually by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa.

It is impossible in the space at disposal to give an idea of the amount of data contained in this carefully-compiled publication. Every aspect of the commercial, financial, engineering, health and educational life of the vast country is dealt with in a way which, while brief, is unstinting in detail.

To business man, official and civilian alike, both in and out of Canada, this year's issue of this booklet, the very substantial increase in the sales of which since the series was placed on an annual basis in 1930 is eloquent testimony to its utility and popularity, should again prove a boon. — X. el A.

DES VOEUX ROAD ASSAULT ECHO

Appeal Fails For Reduction Of Sentence

An appeal for a reduction of sentence was lodged yesterday by Chan Sek-lam, painter, who was sentenced to 15 years' hard labour by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the last Criminal Sessions after having been found guilty by a jury of assault with intent to murder, Lam Pak-sang, managing editor of the Chinese daily, "Nam Wah Yat Po."

The appeal, which was heard by Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell and Mr. Justice J. A. Fraser, was dismissed.

Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. F. H. Loseby, appeared for the appellant. The Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada and Mr. J. B. Prentis, Assistant Crown Solicitor, were for the respondent.

Addressing the Court, Mr. Macnamara said that had the appellant been represented by counsel during the trial, an appeal of this nature might not have been necessary.

Counsel pointed out that, although the victim of the attack received serious injuries, the fact remained that he was confined to the hospital for only a month.

TOO SEVERE

Mr. Macnamara urged that the sentence of 15 years was too severe in view of the fact that there were no aggravating circumstances, and submitted that a sentence of ten years' imprisonment would have been sufficient to deter any further attempts of this nature.

"If this man has to serve 15 years it will absorb the middle portion of his life, for he is now 28 years of age; on the other hand, if the term is shorter it will give him some hope of becoming a useful member of society," he submitted.

Remarking that it was the principle of the Court of Appeal not to interfere unless it appeared that the Trial Judge erred in principle, Mr. Justice Lindsell dismissed the appeal. He said "We see no sign of any such error. Appellant was convicted on the clearest of evidence. The blow almost caused fatal injuries. Moreover, there is another fact, he was twice convicted for loitering with intent and for possession of dangerous weapons."

COLONY HEALTH RETURNS

Forty-seven cases of tuberculosis were notified to the Health Department on April 16, in addition to five cases each of measles and cerebro-spinal fever, two cases each of enteric fever and dysentery, three cases of small-pox, and one case each of diphtheria and chicken-pox.

MUI TSAI CASE

Charged with keeping an unregistered mul-tai, Cheung Sing, 50, married woman, appeared before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday.

Insp. H. W. Fraser stated that the girl went to the S.C.A. on Thursday and reported that she was given to defendant in Canton for a sum of $150. She was in the Colony for three years.

A fine of $20 was imposed on defendant.

A CORRECTION

Our apologies are extended to Mr. F. C. Hall, of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., and Mrs. Hall, who returned to Hongkong in the s.s. Corfu. It was erroneously stated that they were residents of Shanghai and that Mr. Hall was a member of the staff of the Shanghai Power Co. Actually, Mr. Hall has not been a resident of Shanghai since 1911 and has never been a member of the staff of the Shanghai Power Co.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S CHALLENGE

THE CHALLENGING action of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt cannot but be greeted with universal support except from the dictatorial powers. It is a splendid effort to avert warfare and a catastrophe in Europe and it is to be hoped that the totalitarian leaders will not entirely close their doors to the President's eloquent appeal. With a world full of uncertainty and tenseness, Mr. Roosevelt is thoroughly justified in appealing to the better instincts of Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini but, from reports which have been received from Berlin and Rome it would appear that the reception from those quarters will be wholly negative, in which case, the two European dictators will be held fully responsible for any disaster that may come.

COMING as it did at the moment the U.S. Administration saw fit, without any explanation, to order the American Fleet to the Pacific, Mr. Roosevelt's message to the dictators is not without its significance. The naval order came entirely as a surprise but it is believed in Washington that it was precautionary inasmuch as there is a belief that the axis powers are about to act in concert and the American Government does not intend to be caught. Therefore, the Fleet is being moved into the Pacific to restore the balance of power, against the Japanese danger.

PRESIDENT Roosevelt's statesmanlike initiative in taking the step he did by seeking assurances from Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini to refrain from aggression against independent nations should have an appealing effect, but it is a great pity that he did not see his way to going a step further by including the Far East, where the valiant Chinese forces are fighting against a barbaric aggressor. Had he done so, Japan would have been given food for thought for, without American aid in one form or another, Tokyo's military clique would find it impossible to carry on their depredations and carnage in China as they have been doing since the start of the Sino-Japanese war on July 7, 1937. Nevertheless, it is not too late to mend and it is generally hoped that the U.S. Neutrality Act will be so amended as to put a stop to Japanese purchases of munitions and planes from American firms.

EFFORTS are now being made in the United States to amend the neutrality law to give the President wider powers by which he may, instead of referring to Congress before he makes a declaration of war, take such a step on his own initiative and it is believed that advocates of this measure will be successful. Great as Mr. Roosevelt's powers are at present, it must be remembered that, in the United States, there is at present a strong peace group which is opposed to giving the President discretionary powers and it is predicted that there will be a stiff fight before such powers are granted. IN OFFERING to act as a friendly intermediary in

$3,717,200 H.K. ESTATE

WINDFALL FOR GOVERNMENT

Local estate to the value of $3,717,200, was left by the late Mr. Yong Nee-chai, alias Yong Teck-chong, alias Yong Lan-shin, alias Yong Ngce-chai, alias Yong Nee-tai, alias Yong Tsong-tet, alias Yong Chin-oi, formerly of 20 Caine Road, who died at St. Paul's Hospital, Causeway Bay, on April 23 last.

The late Mr. Yong was a property owner and it is learned had also vast mining holdings in the Federated Malay States. Mr. Yong Joo-lin, merchant, Mr. Yong Shook-lin, advocate, both of Kuala Lumpur, and Dr. Yong Loo-lin, of 64 Bonham Strand East, who are the sons of deceased, are executors of the estate. Their application for sealing certified copy of probate of the will has been granted.

Estate duty amounting to $596,336.90 has been paid to the Hong Kong Government.

PRINCIPAL WIFE

In his will, the late Mr. Yong bequeaths $10,000 cash and $500 per month to his principal wife, Lam Tiap-ngong, the latter for the whole of the time she remains his widow. If she is still alive at the end of ten years and still his widow she will receive, in addition, the sum of $30,000.

To each of the four sons by his principal wife, the late Mr. Yong bequeaths $20,000 in cash and the sum of $800 per month. At the end of ten years each of these sons will receive $100,000 in cash.

To each of his five secondary wives, the late Mr. Yong bequeaths the sum of $150 per annum for so long as they remain his widows, providing they agree to reside in his native village of Tai-po, near Swatow. After the expiration of ten years each of his seven sons and five daughters by his secondary wives, in addition to two adopted sons, will receive $10,000 in cash.

ROBBERY IN VILLAGE

Five robbers, armed with revolvers and torches, forced their way into an unnumbered house at Sau Tin Village, Lok Ma Chow, early yesterday morning and, after having ransacked the place for nearly an hour, decamped with money and gold ornaments to a total value of $150.

The inmates were Chau Lin, 45, widow, her two daughters and two young girls. Three of them attempted to prevent the robbers from entering the inner room, but were forced to give way to the intruders.

SEARCH FOR SEA DRAGON ASKED

Friends of Richard Halliburton, have appealed to the United States Coast Guard to send a cutter to the area west of Midway Island in search of the missing American adventurer and author.

Halliburton, sailing from Hong Kong for San Francisco in a Chinese junk, the Sea Dragon, disappeared near Midway several days ago during a heavy storm. His radio went dead and the junk had not been heard from since.

transmitting peace assurances with a view to beginning negotiations looking towards disarmament and opening up trade channels, in which America is prepared to take part, Mr. Roosevelt stressed that there is now a general fear of war throughout the world and "because of that this may be the opportune moment for me to send you this message." President Roosevelt emphasized that, in making his statement, Americans do not speak through selfishness, fear or weakness, but with force of strength and friendship for mankind. Bluntly remarking to the dictators that they have repeatedly expressed that they have no desire for war, Mr. Roosevelt lays the onus on the Dictators. "If this is true," he says, "then there will not be war." In other words, he calls upon Hitler and Mussolini to prove their desire for peace.

ON THE WHOLE, the message is a powerful and magnificent appeal to reason and Mr. Roosevelt deserves great praise for his frank and courageous outspokenness.

PRESENT-DAY CHINESE LITERATURE

Defence Of Culture And Spiritual Freedom

BY JACK CHEN

Modern poetry has more than held its own against the invasion, continues Jack Chen in his article on Chinese National Defence Literature in the February issue of "Life and Letters To-day," the first part of which appeared on this page on Saturday. Even in the days immediately preceding the evacuation of Shanghai a new poetry magazine appeared, the Chung Kuo Shih Tang (Chinese Poetry) with a 3,000 circulation. Following the evacuation this reappeared in Canton as the Shih Tao (Current Song) with a slightly increased circulation.

Other magazines appeared but were short lived. The ambitious 5,000 subscribed edition of the Wu Yueh (May), with 150 pages lasted one number; this however was an important event since it contained the first Chinese translation of Pushkin's Gypsies rendered by Chu Chu-pai, former education Commissioner of the Kiangsi Soviet Government, who met an untimely death in 1936.

It is probably a direct expression of the tremendous spiritual regeneration of China that at this time there is an increased interest in poetic expression and song. Canton, for example, was producing more poetry than any other city just before it was abandoned and destroyed before falling into the hands of the Japanese. At the same time Hankow and Kunning had their own poetry organs, the Shih Shih Ti (Poetic Age) and Chang Ho (War Songs) respectively.

Three new genres of poetry have emerged. First poems for declamation by the poet himself or for elocutionists, that are particularly designed for the mass meeting. Secondly, Street Poems or Poems of the Market-place. These are usually in folk style, always simple in form and rhythm, and are posted on street walls or wall-newspapers. These are widespread in Yenan, centre of the North-West Special Region, and the popular doggerels of Vladimir Mayakovsky and Demian Bedny offer a direct parallel in Soviet Russia at a similar stage of mass literary interest.

The third new genre is a re-incarnation of an ancient form—the folk epic. One of the most famous of these is the North-West Partisans, written by a folklore minstrel of the famous Eighth Route Army.

No less than five epics celebrate the "Battle of Pingling-kwan" and, recited to drum or orchestra accompaniment, one or the other version with many extempore interpolations is an indispensable part of every popular concert.

It is naturally not surprising that comparatively little lyric or sentimental poetry is being published nowadays.

UNITY OF TOLERANCE

Magazines of the democratic Left had long and consistently striven for a unity of tolerance in literary circles. It was an important day when the Kuomintang magazines, particularly the official literary monthly Wen I Eih Kan, edited by Wang Ping-lin, opened its pages to all writers, irrespective of party affiliations who supported national unity and defence, and for the first time printed the stories and commentaries of Pa Chin and Mao Tun.

The writers have founded the Society for Mass Literature. This has issued over 300 pamphlets in simplified characters with editions ranging up to 100,000, at a few cents apiece. The Latin-hua (Chinese in an alphabetic script of 28 letters) continues to spread, particularly in the Special North-West Region (former Soviet areas).

This is not regarded as a rival for the old characters. It is conceived as a substitute for the old characters till they are mastered by the student with the aid of the latinized phonetics. Thus the writers lay the basis of literature-literacy.

DOMINANT THEME

The dominant theme of present-day literature is, of course, the national defence. To the creative artist in China, national defence is synonymous with the defence of culture itself and the intellectual and spiritual freedom without which a progressive culture is as a plant without light. Do not let it be thought for a moment that this is literary jingoism.

The Chinese writer to-day lives and fights with the armies; he is a pioneer of new hinterland cultural centres, he is educating thousands of villages on the tours of the propaganda corps.

He calls for the defence of this new freedom of contact with the masses of the people, this revolutionary spiritual regeneration that he seeks to express and spread by his work. He calls for the defence of the most powerful upsurge of creative vitality that has stirred the millions of China during the last three hundred years.

It is also important that the oft-repeated phrase of "anti-Japanese literature" should not be misunderstood. In no sense is this propaganda directed against the Japanese people.

BESTIAL MILITARISM
It is directed solely against the bestialities of Japanese militarism that are as repugnant to the Japanese people themselves (when they realize it) and to their true interests as they are to the Chinese. The Chinese attitude to Sino-Japanese problems is not negative as this phrase implies, but positive and creative. It is generally understood that peace can only be brought to the Far East (and to the world for that matter) if it is based on equality and co-operation between nations and not on force and coercion.

Chinese defence literature, dedicated to national and international democracy. Such a steadfast adherence to these ideals and a rejection of jingoistic anti-Japanese feeling as a basis of patriotic propaganda, is a measure of the political sanity of China after 18 months of war.

The most characteristic genre in modern writing is the reportage sketch. The short story—in which China has already made notable contributions—holds its own however. This reportage (of which "Incidentally Miss Agnes Smedley's recent book, China Strikes Back, is a typical example) has been stimulated by the newspaper demand for vivid material from the various fronts.

In order to systematize the covering of all important fronts the writers have themselves organized a Literary Correspondence centre (in Changsha), maintaining direct contact with 300 writers and volunteer correspondents in different parts of the country.

The Yenan (Special Region) branch of the Federation recently sent five writers on a reportage tour of all important areas where the Eighth Route Army was operating; the reports of this brigade covering ten points in five provinces, supposedly "occupied" by the Japanese were later printed in dozens of papers.

In describing their journey, in a captured Japanese truck running on Japanese gasoline, to within fifty miles of Peiping they showed the mythical nature of the occupation, its real character as a glorified bandit raid.

GENERAL TRENDS

Such are the general trends in present-day writing in China and if the writers have risen ably to the demands of the times it is largely due to the four writers who have carried on the leadership of Lu Hsiun.

Ting Ling, in the North, leads the literary movement of the Special Region, with I Se-chi, a young Marxist philosopher, as chairman of the Yenan Cultural Society. She herself avers that she has produced little work of permanent artistic merit during the last year, but I am inclined to think that she under-estimates the value of the spade-work she has done in the cultural reconstruction of the North.

She has led her North-West Front Service Corps through 400 villages of Shanxi and Shensi, taught hundreds of thousands of people the basic ideals of the revolution, and written thousands of words of effective plays, sketches,

M. Cosme giving a talk at a reception given in his honour in Chungking by the French-Belgian-Swiss Returned Students' Club. (Central News Photo).

FRENCH AMBASSADOR: OLD FRIEND OF CHINA

M. Henri Cosme, the new French Ambassador to China, created an intensely favourable impression among Chinese government officials and others who had the privilege of meeting him during his short sojourn in Chungking, China's wartime capital. Wherever he went he won for himself considerable affection by virtue of his own friendliness to China and the Chinese people.

The diplomat flew to Chungking on March 5 and five days later he presented his credentials to Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the Chinese National Government. This was followed by a round of dinners and receptions given by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Dr. Wang Chung-hui, the Foreign Minister, and cultural groups, and on March 22 he left for Kunning en route to Indo-China and then to Shanghai. M. Cosme gained his first personal knowledge of China in 1927 when he was counsellor to the French Embassy then in Peking. The following year he was made the Charge d'Affaires. That is why in his speech at the tea reception given in his honour in Chungking by the French-Belgian-Swiss Returned Students' Association, he announced himself as an old friend of China.

CHINA PRAISED
In that speech which won him no little good-will of the Chinese people, M. Cosme paid a high tribute to China's progress during the time of war. This progress, he said, has not only been demonstrated in things material. For there exists in China to-day a vigorous spirit. He firmly believes that a bright future is beckoning to China and he considered it as his rare privilege and profound pleasure to be in China at this particular moment charged with the duty of promoting the welfare of the two great republics.

CHINESE CAPTURE OF TSENGSHING

Japanese Counter Attack Envisaged

CHUNGKING, April 11 (Central)—Commenting on the Chinese recapture of Tsengshing, a military expert prophesied an early counter-attack by the Japanese forces to regain hold once more of this important East River city.

The expert attached great military significance to the return of Tsengshing into Chinese hands, as the city holds a commanding position over Shekiung to the south-east, the southern section of the Canton-Hankow Railway on the west, and the Canton-Kowloon Railway to the farther south.

The expert believed that the Japanese at Shekiung, Canton, and other points around a wide arc between the East River and the Canton-Hankow Railway will now experience great difficulty in maintaining their positions, but said that it is but natural that they will make a serious attempt to regain their lost ground.

Chinese defence in that sector, however, are strong enough to ward off any Japanese attacks and to repeat the success which gained them Tsengshing on April 14, the expert stated.

ballads, and reportage. She is editor-in-chief of the great collective History of the Long March, the epic march of the Red Army that is unparalleled in modern times.

Kuo Mo-jo is the guiding spirit of the cultural life of Central China, as head of all official art propaganda.

In the South, Pa Chin and Mao Tun have made their jointly edited Literary Front the most important literary periodical in China, with its circulation of 18,000, and yet find time to carry on their writing of novels. The title of Mao Tun's latest work is "Quo Vadis?"

"SHINING HOUR" AT QUEEN'S

Joan Crawford's
Fine Acting

In this M.G.M. production at the Queen's Theatre, Joan Crawford appears at her very best. She takes a role different from any of her many former enterprises and is most successful. As a dancer, we do not recall ever having seen her before, but she proved to be imminently suited for the part.

Able supported by Margaret Sullivan, Robert Young, Melvyn Douglas and Fay Bainter, Miss Crawford's part in "The Shining Hour" is by no means an easy one and she fully rises to the occasion and the result is an excellent picture.

It would not be fair to attempt in this short review to give an outline of the story.

Those who miss the picture, however, may rest assured that they are missing something really good. We highly recommend "The Shining Hour."—Pearl Chen.

Britain And France On Watch MEDITERRANEAN AND SPAIN

German And Italian Troop Movements

LONDON, April 17 (Reuter).—The transference of troops from Palestine to Egypt and the despatch of the Welsh Guards to Gibraltar are signs of the close watch which Britain, together with France, is keeping on the Mediterranean and Spain, says "The Times" diplomatic correspondent.

Evidence continues to grow of the large amount of German equipment that has come to naval ports on the north-east coast of Spain and aerodromes and all reports of Italian movements in Spain are being closely examined.

It is particularly being asked when exactly the Italians' triumphal march through Madrid is to take place. The first date suggested was April 20, then May 2 and now May 15.

Unsatisfactory Changes

Clearly, the Government is bound to consider these changes unsatisfactory and "The Times" correspondent, in Washington, dealing with the transference of the American Fleet to the Pacific, says that the effect of such a move on the larger strategic distribution of the world's fleets and on the movement in the United States of such war materials as tin and rubber, are understood to have figured in the calculations.

This decision played havoc with the plan by which the entire Fleet would have made an appearance off New York for the opening of the World's Fair.

Of the 357 fighting ships of the Fleet, about 270 will be in the Pacific when transit of the Canal has been made.

CHINESE SMASH THROUGH

Points north of Tsungfa were subjected to continuous long-range artillery barrages from the Japanese on Saturday and Sunday, with the Chinese replying with heavy guns.

Early at seven o'clock yesterday morning, 600 Japanese infantry mixed with about 100 mounted men and supported by a dozen field pieces, advanced from the southeast of Tsungfa to attack the Chinese positions at Taikonghu. Bitter struggle continued till noon when fighting subsided.

CHINESE ADVANCING

CHENGCHOW, April 17. (Central).—Chinese forces are rapidly advancing on Po Ai, terminus of the Taikow-Chinghua Railway, in northern Honan.

They have inflicted heavy casualties on the Japanese during their fierce attacks on the latter's positions north of Po Ai in the past few days. Most of the Japanese in the vicinity of Po Ai have retreated inside the town.

CHINESE ATTACK

NINGKUO, ANHWEI, April 17 (Central).—Chinese units opened a fierce attack on the Japanese near Iking, important town on the west bank of the Taihu Lake in southern Kiangsu, a few days ago. Following a bitter encounter, the Japanese were put to rout, and several villages there were re-occupied by the Chinese.

Desperate fighting is reported to be in progress near Liyang, west of Iking, where the Chinese are attempting to halt a Japanese southward drive.

The Japanese recently driving towards Liyang from Lishui and Tienwangsu suffered heavy losses and have withdrawn to their original positions.

KAOSHUN RECAPTURED

NANLING, ANHWEI, April 17 (Central).—Following a fierce counter-offensive, Chinese forces, which for strategic reasons recently withdrew from Kaoshun and Suiyangchen, on the Kiangsu-Anhwei border, have re-covered the two towns, according to a report reaching here. The Japanese retreated towards Wanchih south of Wuhu.

ROOSEVELT'S GESTURE FULLY JUSTIFIED Nationwide Support

LONDON, April 17 (REUTER).—PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S CHALLENGING ACTION MET WITH NATION-WIDE SUPPORT IN AMERICA, according to the "Daily Telegraph's" Washington correspondent.

A small group of writers, who have always asserted that negotiations with the Dictators are useless, criticise the President for his policy of "appeasement." Others complain that he is meddling in matters which do not concern the United States, but the general response by the press, Congress and the letters and telegrams which have been received at White House, has been overwhelmingly favourable.

The administration is particularly gratified at the expressions of approval from the isolationists. Senator Nye, part author of the Neutrality Act, declared that it was splendid to see such an effort made at this time.

The administration is not downcast by the reports from Berlin and Rome. They did not expect to get an enthusiastic response, but hope that, on full reflection, the Dictators will not entirely close the door.

Even if the gesture is unsuccessful, the administration believes that it was thoroughly justified because there will be no doubt now where the blame will lie if disaster comes.

NOT APPEASEMENT

WASHINGTON, April 17 (Reuter).—It is understood that the United States State Department does not expect an answer from the German and Italian Governments to President Roosevelt's appeal for some days.

Well-informed circles state that

Unfavourable Reaction To Roosevelt's Message In Berlin & Rome

BERLIN, April 17 (REUTER).—HERR HITLER IS NOT HURRYING TO REPLY TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, but it is pointed out that political circles and the inspired press have made it clear what Germany thinks of the President's message.

Herr Hitler had a talk with Herr von Ribbentrop, the German Foreign Minister, at Munich yesterday afternoon, the conversations lasting nearly two hours.

The Fuehrer is in close touch with Signor Mussolini and it is also understood that he had a lengthy conversation with Field Marshal Goering in Rome.

Herr Hitler is expected to return to Berlin to-night.

TYPICAL COMMENT

A typical press comment is contained in the "Frankfurter Zeitung," which in an editorial declares: "The revision of the Versailles Treaty, by Germany and Italy is not yet concluded," the writer adding that Germany and Italy rely on their own strength to carry it through.

The "National Zeitung" alleges that Germans are ill-treated in England and has a headline "Terror Against Germans in London."

ANSWER NEXT WEEK

BERLIN, April 17 (T/Ocean).—Concerning the telegram to the Fuehrer by President Roosevelt, it is not known what the answer will be.

An extremely busy week lies ahead of Hitler, who will depart from Obersalzberg to-day for a tour of the Ostmark.

On Wednesday afternoon he will return to Berlin, where on that evening the birthday celebrations will commence. Only when these are completed will Chancellor Hitler be able to consider President Roosevelt's message, and it is regarded as natural that he will confer with Dr. Goebbels before formulating his answer.

NO RIGHT

German press criticism on President Roosevelt's message to Chancellor Hitler continued on Sunday evening, when the "Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz," which usually reflects the views of the Wilhelmstrasse, declared that President Roosevelt had no right to assume the role of honourable mediator between the nations of the world, since the United States are as lacking in neutrality to-day as at the time of the Great War.

The "Korrespondenz" recalls President Wilson's principles of humanity and morals and declares it must not be thought that the President was suggesting appeasement, and it is pointed out that President Roosevelt, in September last, envisaged a conference by all interested powers, but what happened was a Four-Power Conference which carved up a sovereign state without its representatives being present.

President Roosevelt now proposes discussions between all interested nations, including the United States.

Informed circles attach particular importance to the word "discussions" and declare that this does not necessarily mean a full dress conference immediately, but multi-lateral exchanges of views and the first worldwide assurances of non-aggression solemnly entered into before all nations. Should those assurances be broken, other nations could withdraw their economic facilities.

It is also declared that if the Axis Powers care anything for world's opinion, they will not reject, out of hand, the plea made by the President.

that they were disregarded in the most shameful manner.

"As for President Roosevelt," it is stated, "he has demonstrated for the past several years his open solidarity with the ideological opponents of Germany and particularly with the central organisation of the enemy of culture, Bolshevism. He has avoided no opportunity of fanning the flames of incompatibility in Europe and has opposed with the sharpest accusations and difficulties the path of those who were inclined to pursue the policy of reconciliation and understanding with the Reich."

REVENGE ACCUSATION

President Roosevelt is accused of seeking upon every opportunity for strengthening the front of revenge against Germany and of supporting the policy of encirclement. "His present action is obviously designed to further this policy," it is declared. In conclusion the "Korrespondenz" states:

"The American President will achieve no greater success than hitherto with his new propaganda which he is circulating throughout the world, because those countries who even without this are certain of Roosevelt's support will be encouraged in their efforts to defend and damage the authoritarian states, while on their part, in recalling the bitter experience of the past years will be strengthened in their resolution not to repeat the mistake of the past when they were victims of their own good faith."

LITTLE HOPE

ROME, April 17 (Reuter).—President Roosevelt's appeal was published in full in the newspapers without comment, but beneath it are reproduced messages giving the unfavourable reaction in Berlin.

Even in moderate political circles, which were yesterday inclined to welcome the telegram, there is now little hope that it will produce the result desired by the President.

The document is described as clumsy in drafting and argument and in the manner of its presentation to the world.

Conversations between Signor Mussolini and Field Marshal von Goering were resumed yesterday evening and are expected to last for some hours.

Terror In Nanchang

RUTHLESS ACTS BY JAPANESE

Due To Guerilla Activities

FENGCHENG, KIANGSI, APRIL 17 (CENTRAL).—THE INCREASING ACTIVITIES OF THE CHINESE GUERRILLAS ON THE IMMEDIATE OUTSKIRTS OF NANCHANG have incited the Japanese forces inside the city to more ruthless pillage and terrorism. Large numbers of houses were searched and denuded of their valuables while hundreds of innocent people were led out and killed by the Japanese on the flimsiest of pretexts.

Along Chungshan Road, Chungcheng Road, and Kuohu Road, many dead bodies, victims of Japanese massacre, are left unburied.

GUERRILLAS ACTIVE

KINHWAI, April 17. (Central).—Chinese guerrillas have recently intensified their activities in north Chetians, especially along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway and the Nanking-Hangchow Highway. They are reported to have recaptured Shashin, 17 miles south of Kashing on the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway. The puppet magistrate there, Tan Yu-ching, who was wounded, has fled to a neighbouring town.

An attack on the Chinese positions near Kashing and Wangtien by the Japanese a few days ago has been repulsed by the Chinese following bitter fighting. Both sides suffered severe casualties. The two towns are reported to have been finally abandoned by the Japanese.

The Chinese launched a fierce attack on the Japanese at Wukang, on the Nanking-Hangchow Highway and its vicinity recently. Many Japanese were killed in action.

FIRE ON BOARD ARK ROYAL

Court Of Inquiry At Portsmouth

LONDON, April 17 (Reuter).—It is learned that a Court of Inquiry was held at Portsmouth into the cause of the fire which occurred on the British aircraft-carrier Ark Royal, when the vessel was returning from Gibraltar about three weeks ago. Several planes were destroyed as a result of the fire.

The result of the inquiry has not been disclosed. An Admiralty official told the "Daily Mail" that the cause of the fire was technical. There was no structural damage to the ship and there were no casualties.

More French Warships At Gibraltar

GIBRALTAR, April 17 (Reuter).—Three more French destroyers arrived at Gibraltar to-day in addition to the four which arrived yesterday and left for unknown destinations in the evening. It is learned that more French warships are expected to arrive at Gibraltar very soon.

BRITISH ENVOY INTERVIEWED

KUNMING, Apr. 17 (Central).—In an interview with pressmen yesterday, Sir Archibald Kerr Clark Kerr, the British Ambassador to China, who arrived here from Shanghai on Saturday, denied that he had any special mission in connection with his present trip to Chungking.

He also discounted rumours that he discussed the Far Eastern situation with Sir Robert Craigie, the British Ambassador to Japan, when the latter visited Shanghai recently.

Sir Archibald will proceed to Chungking on Tuesday.

OFFICIAL VISIT TO BERLIN

POSITIVE STEP FOR PEACE

SOVIET WELCOMES PRES. ROOSEVELT'S APPEAL

MOSCOW, APRIL 17 (REUTER).—THE FULL TEXT OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO HERR HITLER AND SIGNOR MUSSOLINI was given prominence in the Soviet newspapers without any comment.

In political circles the message is welcomed as a positive step for world peace and as clearly defining the aggressor nations.

Although there is pessimism in regard to the response from Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini, it is believed that the Soviet will be ready to participate in the proposed world conference and it is pointed out that Soviet policy has long advocated collective action by the peace-loving powers.

Sir William Seeds, British Ambassador in Moscow, is expected to see M. Litvinoff to-day and resume the talks which were started on Saturday, the results of which have not been disclosed.

The Prime Minister, M. Kallinin, cabled his congratulations and thanks to President Roosevelt on his appeal to the Dictators and he assured President Roosevelt "of the warmest reception of the Soviet peoples who are interested in the preservation of universal peace."

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO DICTATORS

No nation that sincerely seeks peace, and enmeshed it, should resent such approach or do other than welcome a means of satisfying legitimate ambitions, while finding release from the shadow of incalculable calamity.

The "Daily Mail" says that whatever Hitler and Mussolini reply, "There will be one good result of this historical move: 120,000,000 people of that great democracy will learn the point of view of Hitler and Mussolini and they will make their plans accordingly. If the answer is no, or the reply evasive, or the question ignored, they will know what to do."

The "News-Chronicle" says that one immediate advantage of Mr. Roosevelt's message is that, at long last, the initiative is wrested from the aggressors and assumed by the forces working for peace.

The "Daily Herald" says, "We are witnessing a supreme collective effort of peace-keeping nations to save the world from catastrophe. To that mutual effort Mr. Roosevelt has now made, in the name of the United States, a superb and moving contribution. It warns them that if they reject the offer and if they then proceed to force war upon the world, the long list of those who will resist them will include the United States."

"PEACE FRONT" TALKS

Satisfactory Progress Reported

PARIS, April 17 (Reuter).—Satisfactory progress has been made in the "peace front" talks with Russia and Turkey, some well-informed circles forecasting the early conclusion of arrangements between both Eastern and Western Democracies.

It is believed that accord with Turkey has already been virtually reached, while the arrangement with the Soviet will define, in categorical manner, the help the Soviet is disposed to give Rumania and Poland against aggression, but the negotiations with the latter Powers have not yet reached a decisive stage.

GREAT STATE WELCOME

TEHRAN, April 17 (Reuter).—With glittering magnificence the Shah of Iran gave a great state welcome to Mohamed Reza Fahlavi, the 19-year-old heir to the Throne, and his pretty bride, Princess Fawzieh, the 17-year-old sister of King Farouk of Egypt.

As the Crown Prince, his bride, her mother and her three sisters stepped from the train, twenty one guns boomed a salute.

The decorated streets were thronged with cheering crowds as the Royal Procession passed.

The Royal Party will rest until April 22, when the official wedding festivities will begin.

While in Bombay, Dr. Schacht dined with the Governor of the city, Sir Roger Lumley, and visited the Governor of the Reserve Bank.

In Delhi he will visit the Viceroy of India, Lord Linlithgow.

ARTS ACADEMY PRINCIPAL CONVICTED

Compensation To Wife: Bound Over

Lau Kwan-yam, Principal of the International Correspondence Fine Arts Academy, was convicted at the Kowloon Court yesterday of assault on his wife, So On-ping, outside the Chee Yuen School in Chue Yuen Street on February 23, when she claimed he had blackened both her eyes, knocked her down to the pavement, and kicked her.

Sub-Insp. P. Barnicle, related the incident of the complainant's report at the police station when he was on duty.

The defence called two witnesses, the first being the defendant, who gave evidence of three occasions when he alleged his wife and her relatives had caused some annoyance to him by breaking furniture at the school in Ho Mun Tin Street, by lodging a complaint with the Secretary for Chinese Affairs that he was trying to compel her to divorce him and by refusing to let him take from her school some books of his he required for an exhibition. Mr. A. S. K. Lau, representing complainant, questioned witness: "In married life, what is your temper like?" "Witness replied, "There is no degree, it is peaceful."

In convicting the defendant, Mr. E. Himsforth said he was inclined to believe the story of the complainant and her supporting witnesses. He would bind the defendant over on a bond of $50 to keep the peace for one year.

Mr. Himsforth awarded $30 compensation, and fixed May 3 for the hearing of a separate maintenance claim against the defendant.

CHINA COLLECTS GOLD TO ENSURE ECONOMIC VICTORY

CHUNGKING, April 17 (Central)—Ever since the war started, China has been collecting gold to ensure herself of an economic victory over Japan. The Government has been increasing the gold stock in two ways: gold-redemption and gold-mining. The former task is in the hands of the Ministry of Finance and the latter of the Ministry of Economics.

No stone is left unturned by the Ministry of Finance to redeem gold coinage, jewelry, gilded articles, and bullions. Under its direction a Four-Bank Gold and Silver Redemption Office has been established at Chungking by the Central Bank of China, the Bank of China, the Bank of Communications and the Farmers' Bank of China.

All the branches and sub-branches of the four Government banks are entrusted with the job of redeeming and collecting gold and silver, particularly the former, from the populace in their respective localities.

The collection of the Chungking branch of the Central Bank up to last January reached 13,000 oz. If this record is kept up, it is expected that 80,000 oz. will have been taken in by next June.

Added to the collections of the three other Government banks, the figure may reach 200,000 oz. And if one takes into consideration also the redemption by the commercial banks a yield of 300,000 oz. is expected. For instance, the Mei Fong Bank and the Szechwan-Sikong Bank in Chungking once sold around 20,000 oz. of gold to the Four-Bank Office.

AVERAGE "TAKE"

This is confined to Chungking alone. But when one takes into account the average "take" of 10,000 oz. per month by the branches and sub-branches of the four Government Banks in the respective provinces of Kiangsu, Chekiang, Fukien, Sikong, and Shensi, the gold yield of the entire country may come up to 100,000 oz. every 30 days. By the end of next June, there will be 600,000 oz. And add this to the 300,000 oz. expected of Chungking, there will be a total of 900,000 oz. in mid-year.

While the Ministry of Finance was busy calling in gold from the people, the Ministry of Economics has been energetically engaged in gold-mining operations during the past year. Under the Ministry is the Bureau of Gold Mines which co-operates with the gold-producing provinces in administrative and technical matters. On the other hand, another agency of the Ministry, the National Resources Commission, has concerned itself with prospecting and working the gold-bearing fields.

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

Its notable achievements include: (1) The establishment of an Office of Gold Mines in Sikong, China's westernmost frontier province, last winter to tap the gold-bearing territory of the entire province for which work has already been started;

(2) The opening of a Gold-Prospecting Office in 1937 in the province of Chinghai (Kokonor) northeast of Tibet which extends south to Szechwan province;

(3) The opening of an office at Sungeat in the wild mountains of northwestern Szechwan where abundant gold fields are found and where the purest specimens of native gold have yielded 99 per cent. of the pure metal (the average California gold contains 88 per cent., while Australian gold sometimes runs as high as 98 per cent. pure metal);

(4) The maintenance of prospectors along the Hupeh-Honan border in Central China between the Yangtze and the Yellow Rivers, which is considered as the most hopeful gold-producing area;

(5) The commencement of gold production in Kwangsi and Hunan Provinces.

NO EXACT DATA

There is yet no exact data concerning the amount of gold output in this immense area of gold-bearing territory, but a member of the National Resources Commission places the monthly production at 5,000 oz., and says that an annual output of 15,000 oz. is possible.

Meanwhile, miniature "gold rushes" have been reported from many parts of the country, especially in Szechwan and Sikong in West China. For instance, the people residing along the Kialing River in Szechwan and the Golden Sand River in Sikong have taken up gold-washing as their important by-occupation. Above Chungking, particularly, more and more "prospectors" with "gold pans" are seen wading knee-deep in the upper reaches of the Yangtze, and in the Min and Tuo Rivers catching the ores which carry native gold.

It is said that in the hand operations each prospector may get from 2 to 4 oz. of pure metal each day, and that the average monthly income for each prospector ranges from $50 to $80.

ENCOURAGING NEWS

A metallurgist calculates that by attacking the shallow, rich and easily-worked surface deposits of sands and gravels by the simple process of washing and by Government mining, Szechwan alone may yield 300,000 oz. of gold for the State.

This is encouraging news, for 300,000 oz. of gold may, it is said, back up the issue of $144,000,000 worth paper currency.

CURRENCY CONTROL IN DANZIG

DANZIG, April 17 (T/Ocean)—A financial decree issued by the Danzig Senate provides that all inland concerns, Danzig branches of foreign companies and inland industries or business houses owned by foreigners, by April 17, must offer their holdings of foreign exchange in Danzig and abroad to the Danzig Bank, for exchange into Danzig Gulden.

All accounts in foreign currencies held by Danzig banks will be automatically changed into Danzig Gulden, exception being made only in respect to Reichsmarks and Polnaa Zlotys.

The decree provides only for a single exchange will not apply to future holdings and deposits made in foreign currencies to accounts of Danzig firms and private persons after April 17.

The decree differs in this respect from the same law in the Reich, which requires that all foreign exchange be offered to the Reichsbank.

In explanation of this decree, it is stated that Danzig firms and individuals have hoarded foreign exchange for years and the present measure is designed to bring about an equal distribution of the risk and thus to strengthen the Danzig Gulden. Trade and transit commerce will not be affected.

RURAL TRAINING SCHOOL

CONSTANT CONTACT WITH FARMERS

CHUNGKING, April 17 (Central)—The mass Education Movement Association, headed by Dr. James Y.C. Yen, is now busily mapping out plans for the establishment of a special technical school to be known as the National Institute of Rural Reconstruction.

The projected institute will be established in a small town near Chungking so that the students may have constant contact with the farmers for whose welfare their studies will be primarily concerned. The initial fund for establishing the school has been set at $300,000, while the institute's annual expenditure will be around $200,000. The Association's supporters in China and abroad are raising these funds.

The institute will consist of five main departments on local government, rural education, agricultural economics, agriculture and public health. Later a department on animal husbandry and veterinary science may also be opened.

The school is expected to be inaugurated in September. Only graduates from senior middle schools will be enrolled.

RESEARCH WORK

The students will spend their first three years in research work. Character-building will be emphasized as later they will be required to serve in various administrative capacities for pushing the programme of rural reconstruction in China. Field work will occupy the fourth year of training.

As a forerunner to the projected institute, a special group of technical experts was sent by the Association in September, 1938, on an investigation tour throughout the provinces of Hunan, Kiangsi, Chekiang, Kwangsi, Kweichow and Szechwan.

The investigation tour will be completed by the end of April. The findings of the experts will be used as teaching material for the National Institute of Rural Reconstruction and as a basis for a set of recommendations for local government reforms in the different localities visited.

Kim Returns To Baguio

Mr. Chan Kim, proprietor of City Lunch and Pines Sales Company, returned to Baguio from Hongkong where he met members of his family who were coming to the Philippines to join him.

He told the Baguio Bulletin that restaurants and hotels in Hongkong are doing good business, but importers and exporters are suffering from the effect of the Sino-Japanese war.

Refugees from China flock to Hongkong, Mr. Kim said. The poor refugees are kept together in railroad coaches in Kowloon where they are taken care of by British and Chinese charitable institutions. Many of the well-do Chinese refugees practically live in hotels and restaurants, thus increasing their business.

Hongkong is crowded but peaceful, he said. People in Hongkong do not seem to feel the war going on outside of the city limits with the exception of the time when the Japanese aviators showered part of the city with bombs and scared so many people.

Mr. Kim left for Hongkong on the s. s. Tinegara on Mar. 5 and returned on the same ship from Hongkong. After a brief stay in Manila he returned with his family to Baguio.

With Mr. Kim were his wife, his children, Fong, Roy and Tah. He said that he brought his family and children to the Islands so that they could be educated in Manila.

Messrs. Davy and United Engineering Company, Limited, Park Iron Works, Sheffield, have received an order from Messrs. John Lysaght, Limited, Orb Iron Works, Newport, Mon., for an 80in. four-high cold-rolling mill for steel and strip.

Keynes Sees Unemployment Reduced, Income Increased; Urges Mental Readjustment

LONDON, April 17 (Reuter)—Emerging from a silence imposed by prolonged illness, Mr. J. M. Keynes, the noted economist and editor of the "Economic Journal," urges in an article in "The Times" to-day a complete readjustment of the British mental outlook concerning economic implications of the Government's crisis finance.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer should assume that there will be a cessation of abnormal unemployment during 1939/40 and a gradual increase of national income by eight per cent, says Mr. Keynes.

The year's loan expenditure will at least be £220,000,000 above last year's. Many adjustments are necessary before the net effect can be estimated. Private investment, for the purpose of carrying out Government orders, may be an important offset against the increased adverse balance of trade.

The increase of primary demand may be £200,000,000, meaning that the increase of the total demand will be twice this amount.

The British Government loan expenditure will be eight per cent of the national income, or proportionately twice the maximum public works expenditure of America.

BETTER PROSPECTS

Such expenditure, says Mr. Keynes, will require the services of about a million unemployed, which means that the prospects for home industries will be better than they have been for years.

Apart from the labour problem, the balance of foreign trade must be the chief occupation, states the economist. Praising the efforts of Mr. R. S. Hudson, Parliamentary Secretary to the Department of Overseas Trade, to adapt British export methods to the times, Mr. Keynes is of the opinion that the handling of foreign trade cannot be left to unaided individual enterprise.

Moreover, Mr. Keynes advocates tightening up of the embargo on the export of capital by British nationals without interfering with bona fide trade transactions or transactions on behalf of foreign holders.

The whole country's liquid resources must be concentrated to meet the adverse balance of trade to provide for political loans, concludes Mr. Keynes.

BELGIAN BANK RATE RAISED

BRUSSELS, April 17 (Reuter)—The bank rate has been raised from 2½ to four per cent. The decision is interpreted as a measure aimed at defending the Belg against heavy selling pressure arising from unconfirmed rumours that the currency may shortly be devalued.
